MORNING: PALMANOVA

City, already a national monument since 1960, became a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2017 as a transnational site work of Venetian defense between the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The guided tour of the Fortress is very fascinating because you pass through the underground galleries lit by torches, dating back to the seventeenth century.

The tour will end in the Napoleonic Lunette where Mamma Ape will welcome us with a honey tasting. You will taste a variety of wildflower honeys from the Lower Friuli to the acacia one, accompanied by dried fruit and tastings of local cheeses.

AFTERNOON: CIVIDALE DEL FRIULI

Founded by Julius Caesar under the name of Forum Iulii; in 568 d.C. Cividale became the seat of the first Lombard duchy in Italy and later, for a few centuries, the residence of the Patriarchs of Aquileia. A historical and artistic heritage recognized in 2011 by UNESCO, placing Cividale at the beginning of the Lombard route in Italy in an itinerary "Italia Langobardorum" that allows you to discover wonderful treasures, even if little known, starting from Friuli Venezia Giulia.

Meeting with the guide in Piazza Duomo and immersed in a Lombard atmosphere, we visit the Tempietto, the Duomo, the Palazzo de Nordis and the De Martiis collection. At the end tasting of the typical dessert of the valleys the "Gubana" accompanied by a good glass of Collio wine.

MORNING: UDINE

Meeting with the guide in Piazza Primo Maggio in front of the info point for the guided tour through the urban structure of Udine that expanded and prospered following the construction of a network of canals that brought water from the Torre and Tagliamento rivers to the city.

Along the canals "Rogge" many craft and industrial activities were born including spinning mills, mills, sawmills, dyeing shops, weaving, breweries. We discover the manufacturing and commercial activities and then stop in one of the typical taverns to taste a "tajut".
